

Developing an Ozarks Green Thumb

Saturday, March 2, 2024

8:00 A.M. – 3:00 P.M.

New Location!

First Baptist Church, Christian Life Center
1205 Spring Street, Mountain Home, AR 72653

Featured Speaker:

C. Colston Burrell

Lecturer, Garden Designer, Award Winning Author and Photographer

"Nature as Gardener: Working with Natural Process for Beauty and Reduced Maintenance"

Janet Carson

Former State Consumer Horticulture/MG Coordinator and Tour Guide and Blogger for Plan It Janet

"Preparing for the Season Ahead"

Brad Runsick

Baxter County Extension Agent and Staff Chair

"Cankers, Rots, Lesions, and Spots: Managing Plant Diseases in the South"

Randy Forst

State Consumer Horticulture/MG Coordinator

"Some Like It Hot: Plants That Do Well in the Heat"

Event Includes:

Horticulture table, Silent Auction of garden-themed items (cash or check only), and MG project displays.
Snacks and drinks are provided throughout the day.

Seminar Cost: $35 (Includes Lunch)

Limited Seating! Registration begins January 8, 2024.

To Register:

New this year – Online Registration Option for Credit/Debit Card Payments.

Scan the QR Code below or follow this link to register and pay online, or you may mail a check.

http://uada.formstack.com/forms/ozarks_green_thumb

